CHURCH

TRANSFORMED BY GRACE
POURED OUT FOR OTHERS

15 May 2022
Fifth Sunday of Easter

[The angels] said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?"
She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus.
Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?"

WORSHIP AT ZION

The Zion worship service has a structure and sequence that reflects the way scripture shows how God meets his people. God has made himself known to the world in Jesus Christ, who is God the Son, who took on human flesh, bled and died for our sins, rose from the dead, ascended to the Father's right hand, intercedes for us now, and will come again to receive us at the end. The church assembles on the Lord's day to name the name of Jesus, which is above every name.

- We enter his courts with thanksgiving and praise
- We kneel before him in confession and repentance
- We stand and hear again the Gospel's promise of mercy and forgiveness
- We bring our tribute offerings to our King
- We hear the voice of God from scripture
- We eat at the table Jesus has provided for us
- We depart with his blessing and promise that He will be with us until he comes for us again.

THE MISSION OF ZION CHURCH

By God's grace Zion Church will be a Christ-centered ministry committed to worship God by proclaiming the truth of Scripture and relating to one another on the basis of the transforming power of the Gospel.

As God's people living in community, we will equip one another to pour out our lives for Christ at home, in the city, on the campus, across the Midwest, and to the ends of the earth. This vision rests upon the supernatural work of Christ who alone can build His church through the Spirit's work in our lives together.

Welcome and Announcements

ENTRANCE TO WORSHIP

Call to Worship Acts 13:47-49

For so the Lord has commanded us, saying, "I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth." And when the Gentiles heard this, they began rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord, and as many as were appointed to eternal life believed. And the word of the Lord was spreading throughout the whole region.

WORSHIP THROUGH CONFESSION AND PRAISE

† Come Into His Presence With Singing

Alleluia! Alleluia! (Trinity Hymnal 283)

Our Great God

Your Will Be Done

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,

and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil;

for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.

Amen.

Preparation for Confession Leviticus 19:15-17

You shall do no injustice in court.

You shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great,
but in righteousness shall you judge your neighbor.

You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people,
and you shall not stand up against the life of your neighbor:

I am the LORD.

You shall not hate your brother in your heart, but you shall reason frankly with your neighbor, lest you incur sin because of him.

You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people,
but you shall love your neighbor as yourself:

I am the LORD.

Silent Confession of Sin

† Declaration of Grace Psalm 9:9-10

The LORD is a refuge for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble.

Those who know your name will trust in you,
for you, LORD, have never forsaken those who seek you.

After Easter Series

“Mary.”

John 20:11-18

Sermon Notes: May 15, 2022 (week 4 of 8)

After Easter* explores the implications of John’s words:

“Now there are also many other things that Jesus did. Were every one of them to be written, I suppose that the world itself could not contain the books that would be written.”

John 20:11-18

¹¹ But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb, and as she wept she stooped to look into the tomb. ¹² And she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet. ¹³ They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him."

¹⁴ Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus. ¹⁵ Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away."

¹⁶ Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to him in Aramaic, "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher). ¹⁷ Jesus said to her, "Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" ¹⁸ Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"-- and that he had said these things to her.

Questions for Further Discussion:

- ◆ Somebody had to be the First One to encounter the risen Lord. But why Mary?
- ◆ Review the sequence of resurrection events in the four gospels. Where does Matthew 28:9 fit? Matthew tells us that Jesus appeared to the women on their way to report the empty tomb to the apostles. Mark 16:9 says Jesus "appeared first to Mary Magdalene," perhaps with this encounter from John 20:14 in mind.
- ◆ Both the angels and Jesus ask Mary the same question, "Why are you weeping?" "Well," Mary could say, "isn't it obvious?" Why ask a question that has such an obvious answer?
- ◆ In verse 17, the KJV translators have Jesus say, "Touch me not." In most modern translations, it's something like, "Stop clinging to me." Is there a difference? What misunderstandings might grow from a "touch me not" reading?

COMMITTED TO GOD'S TRUTH

We believe in a holy God who exists eternally in three persons – the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

We believe the Bible is the written word of God, and we hold to it as our authority in all matters of faith and life.

We believe all people are sinners, justly deserving God's displeasure, and incapable of saving themselves.

We believe that Jesus Christ – God the Son who became man – lived a sinless life, died on the cross and rose again to accomplish our salvation. We receive this gracious gift through faith alone.

We believe the Holy Spirit gives Christians the daily strength and wisdom they need to walk according to His will and grow in holiness.

We believe that Jesus Christ will return to judge all mankind and to receive His people unto Himself.
